Gatlin International launches adult continuing education site

LONDON – Gatlin International, the world’s largest elearning provider, has unveiled <http://gatlininternational.co.uk>, a worldwide site offering adult continuing education and certificate courses in a variety of subjects and languages.

A pioneer in online education since 1993, Stephen Gatlin founded Gatlin International which provides elearning solutions through partnerships with top universities, corporations and governments around the world. Gatlininternational.co.uk holds adult continuing education programmes built by Gatlin International as well as content from the world’s best elearning providers. Offered in 12 languages, courses cover subjects including healthcare and fitness, business and professional, IT and software development, management and corporate, media and design, hospitality and gaming, as well as skilled trades and industrial.

After browsing the catalogue, viewing course demos and selecting a programme, visitors can use the Web site’s partner locator to find the closest location to register. In addition, users can take a free course by registering with their e-mail address as well as find partnership opportunities. Also available on the site, Gatlin International’s blog gives readers an inside look into the online learning industry and the media room highlights the company’s latest news.

“Everyone deserves access to professional development and adult continuing education programmes no matter the location. That’s why over the past 15 years, we’ve been expanding our reach in providing the world the best when it comes to elearning” said Stephen Gatlin, founder and CEO of Gatlin International. “Our new site makes it easy to find information on the quality courses and services that our partners and customers have come to expect from our company.”
